ORDINARY TIME

Lent is a season of penitence, fasting, and prayer, in preparation for the great feast of the resurrection: Easter. The forty days of Lent refer to Jesus's time of fasting in the wilderness (Sundays are never fast days and so are not included in the forty). In this season, we begin each service with confessing our sins because it is through repentance that we may enter the joyful celebration of the resurrection.

Holy Communion

Welcome & Announcements

Processional

Please stand as you are able.

The Acclamation for Lent

Please remain standing as you are able.

Celebrant Bless the Lord who forgives all our sins.

People His mercy endures forever.

The cross, a symbol of Christ in our worship, leads us to the altar, reminding us that our way to God is through Jesus.

With these words we affirm to one another and God why we've come together to worship.

A “collect” collects our prayers together in unity. This prayer acknowledges our need for help to worship God with all our heart, soul, and mind.

As we hear the Ten Commandments (Exodus 20:1-17; Deuteronomy 5:6-21) read to us, we recognize and state our need for mercy because we routinely fail to love God and our neighbors.

The Collect for Purity

Please remain standing as you are able.

All Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Decalogue

Please kneel as you are able.

Celebrant God spoke these words and said: I am the Lord your God. You shall have no other gods but me.

People Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

Celebrant You shall not make for yourself any idol.

People Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

Celebrant You shall not take the Name of the Lord your God in vain.

People Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

Celebrant Remember the Sabbath day and keep it holy.

People Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

Celebrant Honor your father and your mother.

People Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

Celebrant You shall not murder.

People Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

Celebrant You shall not commit adultery.

People Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

Celebrant You shall not steal.

People Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

Celebrant You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor.

People Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

Celebrant You shall not covet.

People Lord, have mercy upon us, and write all these, your laws, in our hearts, we beseech you.

The Kyrie

Please remain kneeling as you are able.

Celebrant Lord, have mercy.

People Christ, have mercy.

Celebrant Lord, have mercy.

Remembering the focus of our faith—to love God and others—gives us opportunity to reflect on what is most important, and how we fall short.

The Confession

Please remain kneeling as you are able.

Deacon Let us humbly confess our sins to Almighty God.

Silence.

All Most merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you
in thought, word and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone.

Now that we are reminded of what is broken and painful in this life, we confess our sin (our rebellion against God), because it is the underlying cause of all that pains this world.

We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.

We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in your will, and walk
in your ways,
to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Having confessed our sin and our need for a Savior, the priest reminds us of God's incredible mercy and forgiveness, pronouncing God's absolution (forgiveness) of our sins.

The Absolution

Celebrant Almighty God, our heavenly Father, who in his great mercy has promised forgiveness of sins to all those who sincerely repent and with true faith turn to him, have mercy upon you, pardon and deliver you from all your sins, confirm and strengthen you in all goodness, and bring you to everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Children are an important part of our church and worship. Jesus said, "Let the children come to me; do not hinder them, for to such belongs the kingdom of God" (Mark 10:14). We bring the children forward so that they can know that God invites them to come and know Him.

Children's Sermon

Please be seated.

Children in Kindergarten through 3rd grades are invited to attend Children's Church at this time. The children will return at the Peace. You may pick up your nursery-aged children for Holy Communion at that time.

The Collect of the Day

Please remain seated.

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And with your spirit.

Celebrant Let us pray.

The Celebrant prays.

People Amen.

A “collect” collects our prayers together in unity. This prayer changes each week and focuses our prayers for the week ahead.

The Lessons

Please remain seated for the first reading.

The readings for the day can be found in the weekly bulletin.

The Lector gives a citation giving chapter and verse then reads the Scripture.

Lector The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

The Bible is one coherent story so we read from different parts, desiring to hear God speak to us through His Word.

Please stand as you are able for the Psalm.

The Psalm is typically read responsively by half-verse, led by the Celebrant with the People responding.

Celebrant Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit,

People as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen.

Please be seated for the second reading.

The Lector gives a citation giving chapter and verse then reads the Scripture.

Lector The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

We sing a chorus before and after the Gospel reading as we prepare our hearts for the sermon.

Please stand as you are able.

Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to St. _____.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

The Deacon or Priest appointed reads the Gospel.

Deacon The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Sermon

Please be seated.

The Nicene Creed

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant Let us confess our faith in the words of the Nicene Creed:

All We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, visible and invisible.
We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only-begotten Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven,
was incarnate from the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;

This is a sufficient statement of the Christian faith - what all Christians everywhere have always believed to be true. The term "Nicene" refers to its origins at the Council of Nicaea (a gathering of the whole Church) in 325 A.D. We say this each week as a reminder of what is most important to believe and what unites us as Christians.

he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended in to heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.
We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Prayers of the People

Please kneel as you are able.

Reader Let us pray for the Church and for the world, saying, “hear our prayer.” For the peace of the whole world, and for the well-being and unity of the people of God.

Lord, in your mercy:

People Hear our prayer.

Reader For Foley, our Archbishop, and Alex, our Bishop, and for all the clergy and people of our Diocese and Congregation.

Lord, in your mercy:

People Hear our prayer.

We invite you to pray silently or aloud according to each of the prompts. If you pray aloud, please pray boldly and briefly so that others may hear and pray with you.

Reader	For all those who proclaim the Gospel at home and abroad, and for all who teach and disciple others. Lord, in your mercy:
People	Hear our prayer.
Reader	For our brothers and sisters in Christ who are persecuted for their faith, especially in ____; and for those who persecute your people. Lord, in your mercy:
People	Hear our prayer.

Reader	For all those who are in trouble, sorrow, need, sickness, or any other adversity. Lord, in your mercy:
People	Hear our prayer.
Reader	For all those who have departed this life in the certain hope of the resurrection, in thanksgiving let us pray. Lord, in your mercy:
People	Hear our prayer.

The Peace

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant The Peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And with your spirit.

The Ministers and People greet one another in the Name of the Lord. Parents may now pick up their children ages 4 and under from the nursery if they desire. Nursery is available through the end of the service. Children in Kindergarten through 3rd grades will return from Children's Church at this time.

The Offering and Doxology

During the Offertory hymns or songs may be sung. The Deacon or Priest prepares the Holy Table for the celebration.

Please stand as you are able while the offerings are presented.

The Sursum Corda

Please remain standing as you are able.

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And with your spirit.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them up to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give him thanks and praise.

Celebrant It is right, our duty and our joy, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth.

You bid your faithful people cleanse their hearts, and prepare with joy for the Paschal feast; fervent in prayer and in works of mercy, and renewed by your Word and Sacraments, they may come to the fullness of Having confessed our sins, received God's forgiveness, and heard his word preached, we express that we have been reconciled to God and one another by sharing the peace we have through Jesus. We do this before the offering because Jesus says, "First be reconciled to your brother, and then come and offer your gift" (Matthew 5:24).

In response to all that God has done for us, we worship God by giving of our finances and raising our voices together in song.

Literally meaning "Lift up your hearts" the Sursum Corda begins a prayer of great thanksgiving to God for the redemption of the world through Jesus Christ.

Latin for “holy,” this ancient hymn weaves together Scripture which describes the worship happening on heaven and earth (Isaiah 6:3, Psalm 118:26, Matthew 21:9, Revelation 4:8). We join with all the saints in heaven on earth in worshiping God.

This prayer retells the story of redemption, recalling the wonderful mystery of God becoming human in the person of Jesus Christ to give His life for us and renew all things.

grace which you have prepared for those who love you.

Therefore we praise you, joining with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

The Sanctus

Please remain standing as you are able.

All Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is he who comes in the Name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

The Prayer of Consecration

Please remain standing or kneel as you are able.

Celebrant Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and when we had sinned against you and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent your only Son Jesus Christ into the world for our salvation. By the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary he became flesh and dwelt among us. In obedience to your will, he stretched out his arms upon the Cross and offered himself once for all, that by his suffering and death we might be saved. By his resurrection he broke the bonds of death, trampling Hell and Satan under his feet. As our great high priest, he ascended to your right hand in glory, that we might come with confidence before the throne of grace.

On the night that he was betrayed, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying, "Take, eat; this is my Body, which is given for you: Do this in remembrance of me."

Likewise, after supper, Jesus took the cup, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, saying, "Drink this, all of you; for this is my Blood of the New Covenant, which is shed for you, and for many, for the forgiveness of sins: Whenever you drink it, do this in remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

All

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

Celebrant

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving, and we offer you these gifts. Sanctify them by your Word and Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son Jesus Christ. Sanctify us also, that we may worthily receive this holy Sacrament, and be made one body with him, that he may dwell in us and we in him. In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us with all your saints into the joy of your heavenly kingdom, where we shall see our Lord face to face.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ: By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

Amen.

Jesus taught his disciples this prayer as a model for how to pray (Luke 11:1–4). The Lord’s Prayer roughly breaks down into three types of prayers: Praise (Thank you), Petition (Please), and Penitence (Sorry). We pray this each week to remind us how Jesus taught us to pray.

As we hear the sound of the bread being broken, we remember the cost of Christ’s sacrifice for us.

Though we have already confessed our sin and asked for and received God’s absolution, together we summarize all that has been said.

The Lord’s Prayer

Please remain standing or kneeling as you are able.

Celebrant And now as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to pray:

All Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread

Celebrant Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us.

People Therefore let us keep the feast.

The Prayer of Humble Access

All We do not presume to come to this your table, O merciful Lord, trusting in our own righteousness,
but in your abundant and great mercies.
We are not worthy so much as to gather up the crumbs under your table;
but you are the same Lord whose character is always to have mercy.
Grant us, therefore, gracious Lord,

so to eat the flesh of your dear Son Jesus Christ,
and to drink his blood,
that our sinful bodies may be made clean
by his body,
and our souls washed through his most precious blood,
and that we may evermore dwell in him,
and he in us. Amen.

The Ministration of Communion

Please remain standing or kneeling as you are able.

Celebrant The gifts of God for the people of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

The Ministers receive the Sacrament and then give it to the People.

You may be seated.

During Communion, songs or hymns may be sung.

All baptized Christians are invited to come forward and receive the bread and wine. It has long been the conviction of the Church that, if you receive only the bread or only the wine, you have received the sacrament in full. Therefore, if you have a personal need to refrain from either the bread or the wine this week, know that you are still fully communing with Christ and his Church.

Ushers will direct you to the altar rail. If you are not baptized and would like to receive a blessing, come forward and kneel, crossing your arms over your chest. The priest will quietly pray God's blessing upon you.

If you would like to receive prayer for anything in your life, members of the prayer team are available in the wings of the sanctuary under the exit signs.

In the Sacrament we partake of God's past, present, and future grace. The physical bread and wine nourish us with the spiritual presence of Jesus.

In response to all we have heard, learned, and experienced during the service, we turn our hearts to sing praises to our God.

We give thanks for the feast we have partaken in and prepare to go back into the world to labor for his kingdom.

The Post Communion Prayer

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant Let us pray.

All Heavenly Father,
We thank you for feeding us with the spiritual food
of the most precious Body and Blood of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ; and for assuring us in these holy mysteries that we are living members of the body of your Son,
and heirs of your eternal Kingdom.

And now, Father, send us out to do the work you have given us to do ,
to love and serve you as faithful witnesses
of Christ our Lord.

To him, to you, and to the Holy Spirit,
be honor and glory, now and for ever.
Amen.

As we go out into the world, we receive God's blessing which empowers us to do the work before us.

The Blessing

Please remain standing as you are able.

The Bishop when present, or the Priest, gives this or an alternate blessing.

Celebrant The peace of God, which passes all understanding, keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of God, and of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord; and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you, and remain with you always. Amen.

Recessional

The Dismissal

Please remain standing as you are able.

Deacon All our problems:

People We send to the cross of Christ.

Deacon All our difficulties:

People We send to the cross of Christ.

Deacon All the devil's works:
